Re: Representation by Parr Brown Gee & Loveless

Dear All:

Thank you for choosing Parr Brown Gee & Loveless (the “Firm”) to represent each of you as amicus parties in submitting an amici curiae brief in support of Planned Parenthood Association of Utah in the appeal pending before the Utah Supreme Court entitled Planned Parenthood Association of Utah v. State of Utah, et al., Appeal No. 20220696-SC (the “Action”).

I have enclosed another copy of the Firm's Terms and Conditions of Engagement for Legal Services (the "Engagement Terms"), which is incorporated herein by this reference. The Engagement Terms explain the Firm's policies and practices for billing, retainer, privacy, and other important issues that will govern the relationship between the Firm and you as the client during our current representation and any additional engagements we accept. If you have any questions or concerns about the Engagement Terms, please do not hesitate to let me know.

We have agreed to perform this work pro bono, which means we will not charge you for our hourly work on this case. You have agreed to cover any out-of-pocket costs, which we will still document in invoices sent to you. We anticipate the only costs associated with the Matter will be copying costs for the submission of paper briefs to the Utah Supreme Court, which shouldn't be significant and will be split evenly.

We have completed a conflicts check and are unaware of any actual or potential conflict of interest associated with our representation. If a conflict is identified by you or by us in the future, the Engagement Terms provide for the manner in which it will be resolved.

It is important that you are satisfied with our services and responsiveness. We intend to provide quality legal services in an efficient, economical manner. Please bring to my attention any questions or concerns you may have concerning our services, policies, or fees.

Please acknowledge your agreement to the terms of our engagement as set forth in this letter and the Engagement Terms by executing this letter in the space below and returning it to me. I encourage you to keep a copy for your records. We look forward to working with you.

Sincerely,

PARR BROWN GEE & LOVELESS

David C. Reymann
